DEAR PARENT OR GUARDIAN:

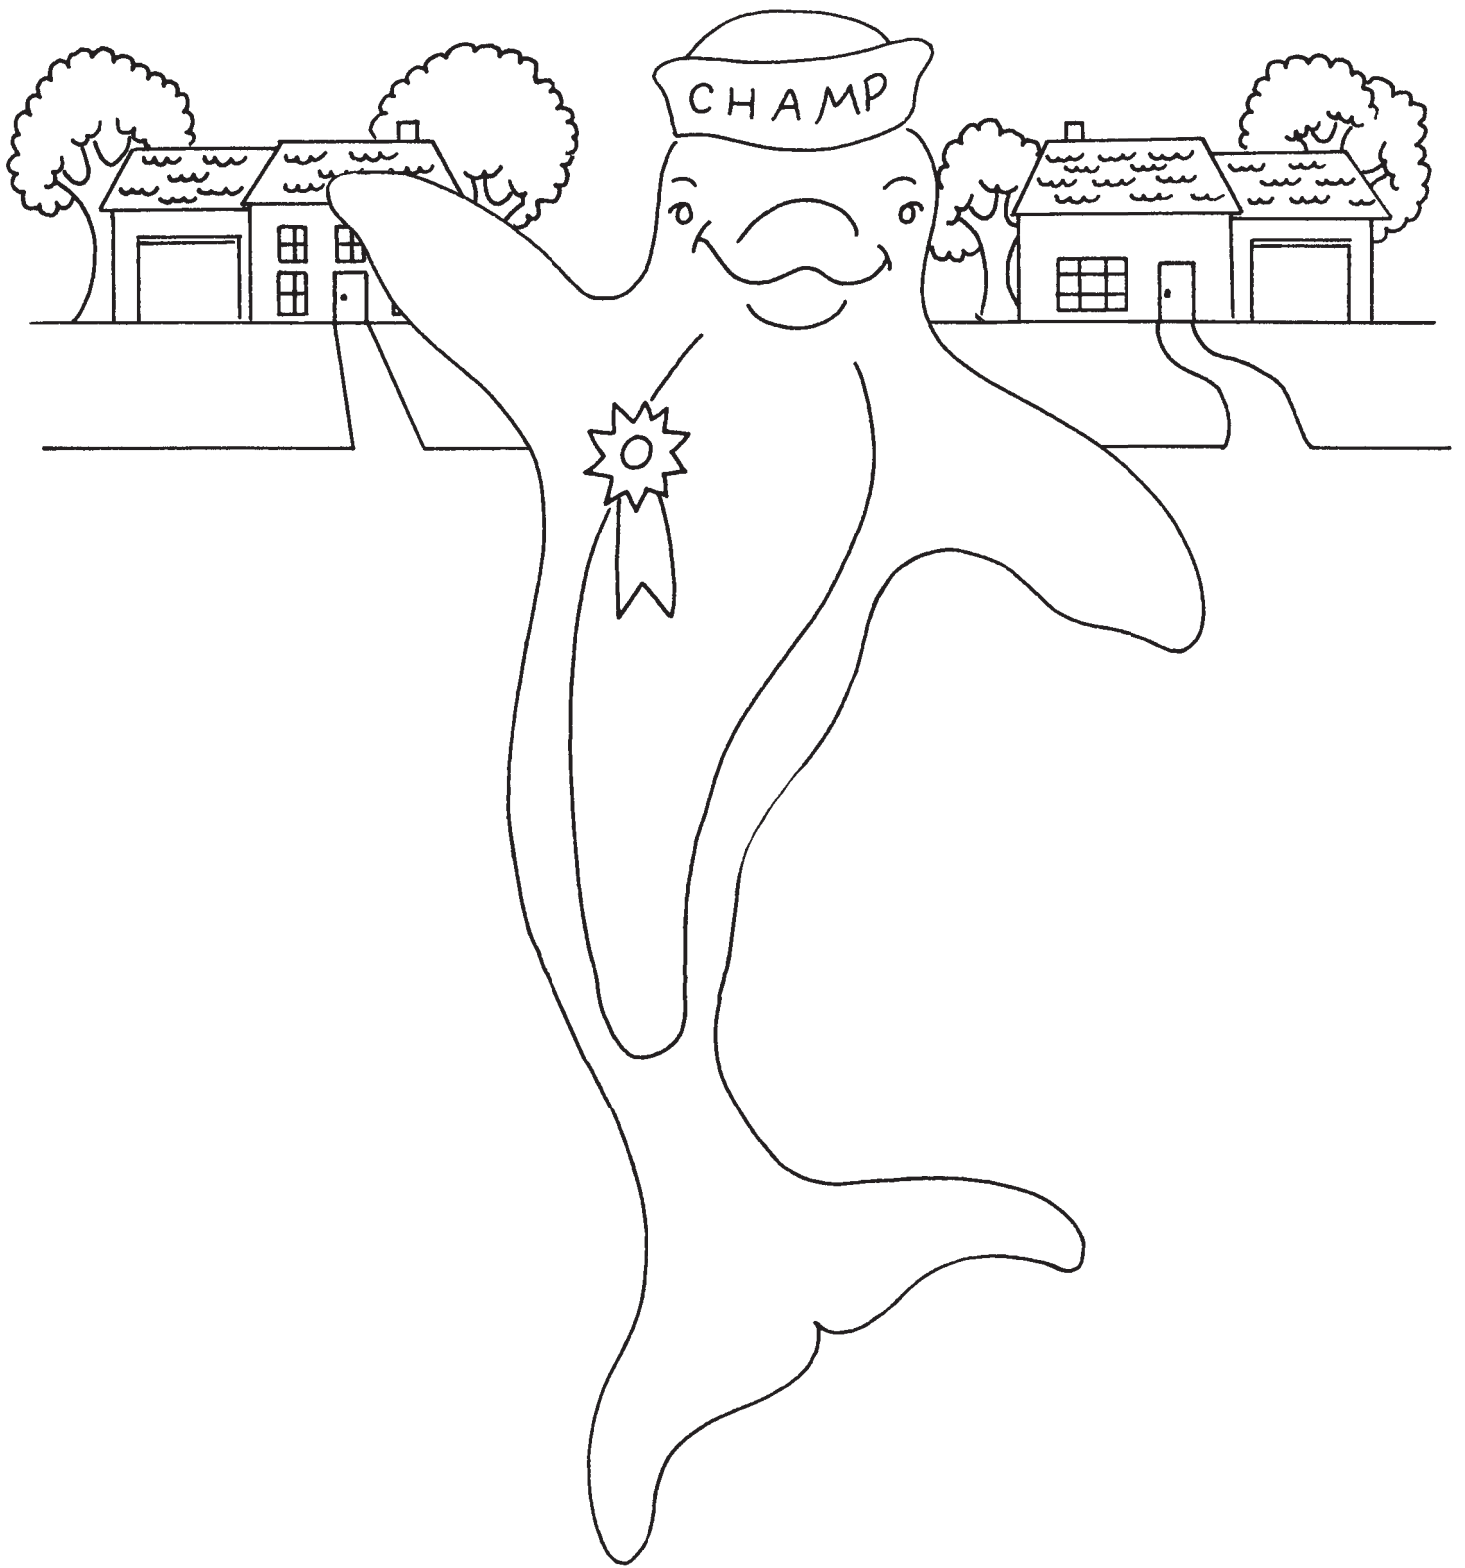

This is a book that is meant to help your children. Family violence takes place in neighborhoods everywhere. It happens here in Colorado Springs.

Please read this book with your children. Talk with them about their feelings and questions and remind them that the violence is not their fault. Acknowledge your feelings and thoughts as well. No one is more important than you as a protector of your children.

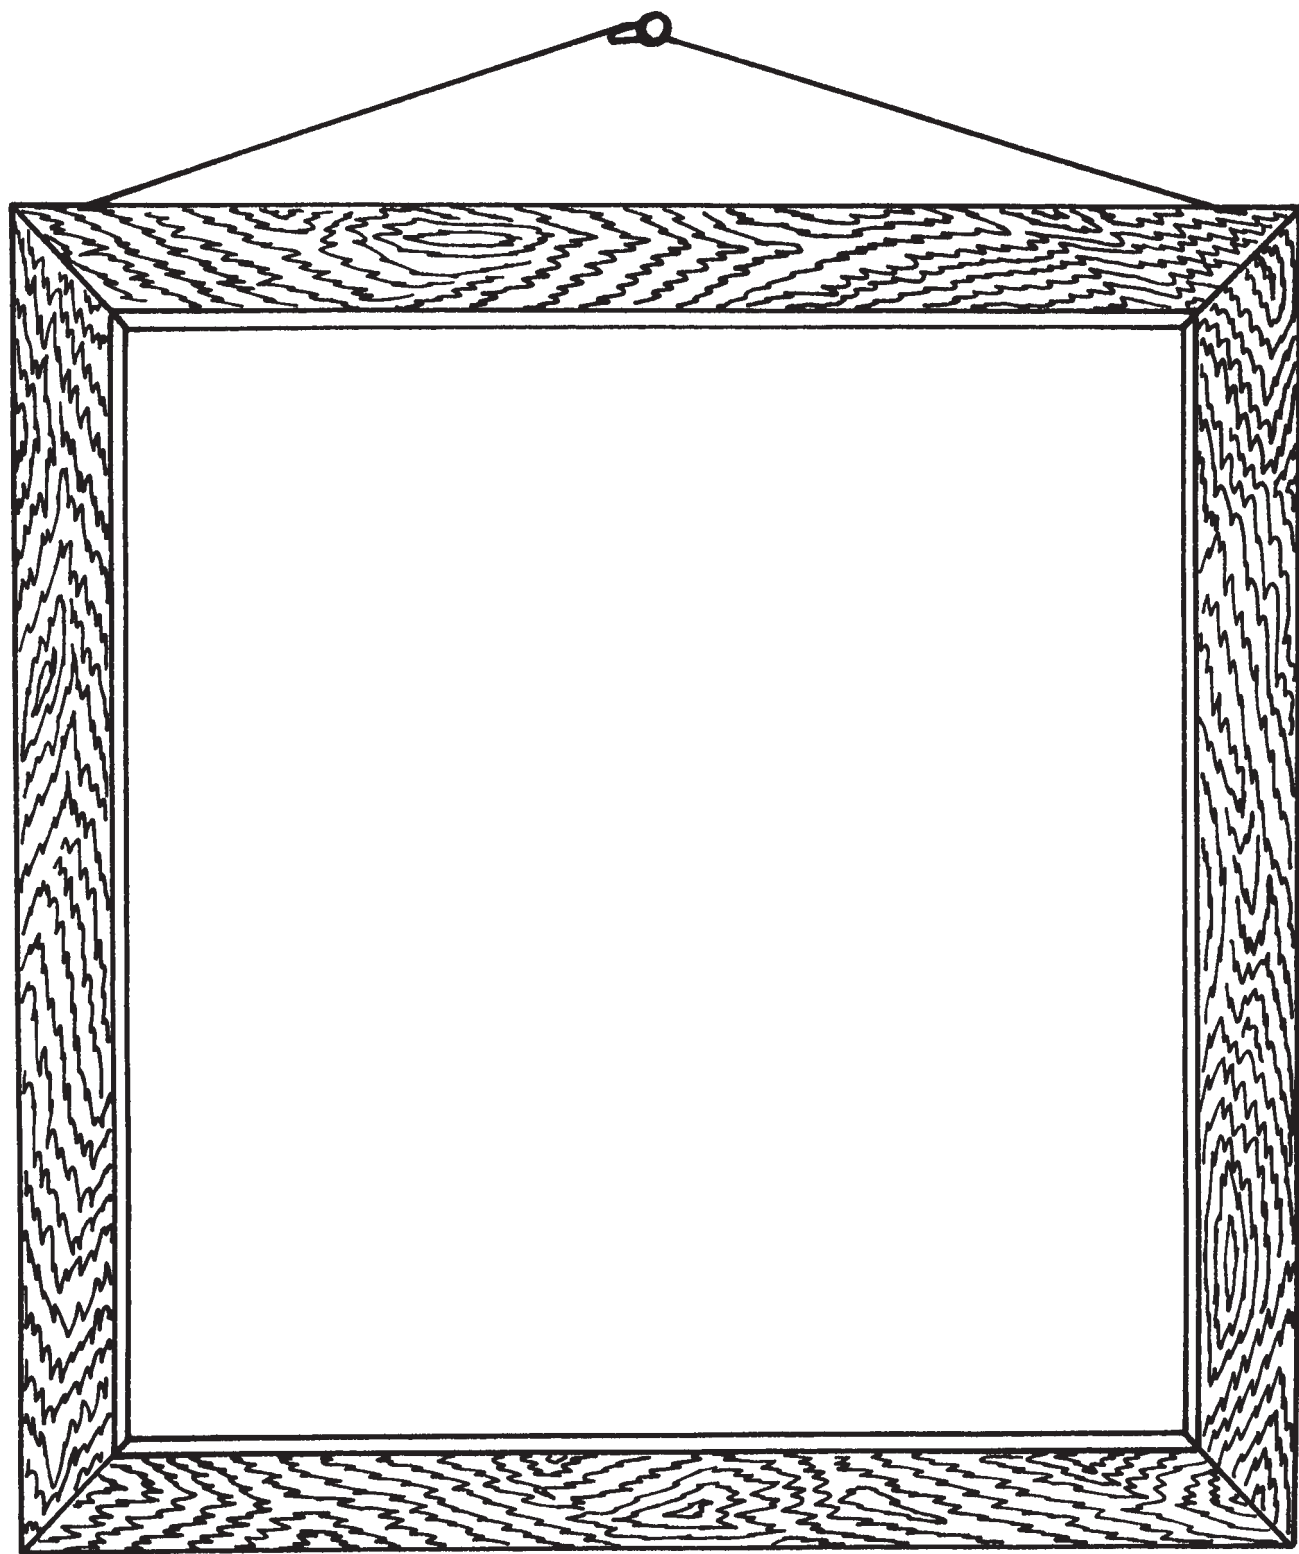

There is help and support available for you and your children. Please note the numbers listed in the back of this book.
